

Marine Plywood

Hardwood B/BB

Mixed Colours

Our Marine Plywood, manufactured in accordance to the international standard BS 1088. When it comes to projects that involve water, be it boat building, outdoor furniture for coastal areas, or aquatic installations, the choice of materials becomes crucial. Enter the BS 1088 Marine Ply, a remarkable construction material that combines strength, durability and versatility.

Applications

Boat building, outdoor furniture, aquatic structures, interior design and architectural accents.

Specifications

|                         |                                             |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Name:                   | BS 1088 Marine Plywood Non-Structural       |
| Certification:          | This product is made of FSC®-certified wood |
| Glue Bond:              | Type 'A' Bond Phenol Formaldehyde           |
| Standard:               | British Standard 1088                       |
| Formaldehyde Emissions: | E0                                          |
| Thickness:              | 6, 9, 12, 18mm                              |
| Sheet Size:             | 2440 x 1220                                 |
| Face Grades:            | BB-Sanded both sides                        |
| Core:                   | Hardwood                                    |
| Core Gaps:              | No                                          |
| Moisture Content:       | 8-14%                                       |
| Resource:               | Legal and sustainable resource              |

Our Brands:

1300 399 922

